

Amber McClurg

10/7/2021

DSC101

2nd Sprint Review

In the first sprint review I came up with a research question to ask along with some links to help find the answer to my question. "How do you determine which horror movie is the scariest". The methods I plan to use are to go through the data base I've found and plot it in R so it is easier to see and come to the conclusion of which factors I want to include when searching for the scariest movie.